First delivery to public schools in the Philippines

Hoshizaki Philippines Corporation (Hoshizaki Philippines), our group company in the Philippines, has delivered 600 units of commercial refrigerators and commercial freezers for the Culinary Program to train professional chefs, at 300 public school facilities including high schools and vocational training schools across the Philippines. The Department of Education of Philippines has highly evaluated the specifications and high quality of Hoshizaki's products, and we have received our first order from them. Taking this opportunity, we will actively develop new markets such as schools and hospital facilities.
